

Consent form allowing the Centre français Hamilton inc. (CFHI) to use the films selected for the « Tapis Rouge » 2011 contest.

Each participant recognizes and guarantees that the contents of the short film they are presenting is an original and that it does not violate third party rights.

The director(s) of the selected short film projects must consent to their names and their photos being used for promotional or publicity purposes in relation to the contest without receiving any monetary compensation.

Students graciously authorize the Centre français Hamilton inc. (CFHI) to use, in the context of the above-mentioned contest, all or parts of their short film on websites, in schools and in other public areas. This means that they sign over their reproduction and representation rights as of the moment CFHI receives the finalized short film.

The CFHI reserves the rights to, at their discretion, distribute selected short films to other organizations in partnership with the CFHI such as schools, school boards, other community organizations or any other organization that the CFHI deems will be trustworthy and respectful in their use of the short films.

I hereby allow the Centre français Hamilton inc. to use my film.
